

REGISTER
NOW!

Oglethorpe

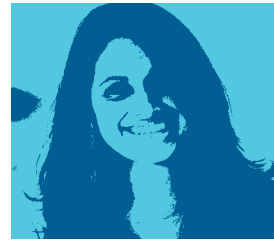

University

Nov. 12–14, '09

Atlanta, GA

THE BEN MARION INSTITUTE
FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE, INC.

The Ben Marion Institute for Social Justice, Inc
with the generous support of the Lloyd E. Russell Foundation, Inc.
is pleased to announce its First Annual Social Justice Symposium

The Social Justice Answer: Transforming a Youth Culture of Bullying

Hands on, thought provoking workshops exploring the social and emotional dynamics of bullying in youth.

Nov. 12 Pre-Symposium
Nov. 13–14 Symposium

This experience will enable participants to think about bullying in a different way and explore effective methods to promote a social justice culture for today's youth.

National and regional clinical and academic practitioners will offer experiential workshops on such relevant topics as:

- Bullying Prevention Policies and the Law
- Gay/Straight Alliance Strategies
- Cyber Bullying & Relationship Building
- Creating a Peaceable Classroom
- The Language of Bullying: Texting, Blogs & More
- The Adolescent Brain: Empathy, Anger and Discipline
- Social Justice Skill Building for Youth

For further Symposium details and to register, please visit:

www.stopyouthbullying.org

Symposium Fee (Fri. & Sat.): $125
Pre-Symposium Fee (Thurs.): $100

Individuals from the same schools, agencies and organizations bringing three or more attendees are eligible for a reduced registration fee (Symposium $100, Pre-Symposium $75).

Fee includes continental breakfast, lunch, participant journal and resource booklet. Free accessible parking provided.

Professional learning credit will be given (CEUs, PLUs, etc.).

For immediate questions, please email: symposium@benmarioninstitute.org or call 404-320-0985

The Ben Marion Institute For Social Justice, Inc
985 Citadel Drive NE | Suite A | Atlanta, GA 30324 | www.benmarioninstitute.org